

Rosemary Therese Scheuering was born on September 13, 1940 to Fred and Lucile Scheuering in St. Paul, Minnesota. She was later joined by two brothers Joseph and John. Rosemary grew up in a variety of places: Peoria and Park Ridge, Illinois; Fort Worth, Texas; Denver, Colorado; Phoenix, Arizona; Albuquerque, New Mexico including some repetition between those places. The family joke was that a rolling stone gathers no Moss, but it DOES get polished.

Rosemary graduated from Holy Family High School in Denver. She completed her Bachelor's degree at St. Joseph on the Rio Grande in Albuquerque, New Mexico. She earned a Master's of Art Education at Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio. She earned a Master's of Fine Arts at the University of Colorado in Boulder, Colorado. Rosemary taught for many years in School District 12 in Adams County Colorado, where she retired. After her retirement, she remained active in education as a substitute teacher.

Rosemary had many excellent travel experiences in Europe, the Middle East and South America, in addition to her travels throughout the United States.

Rosemary was preceded in death by her parents and brother Joseph. She is survived by brother John and by nieces Amy and Andrea, nephews Scott, Dan and Eric, as well as great nephews and a great niece. She is also survived by many friends.
